RULES OF THE COURT OF COMMON PLEAS
DOMESTIC RELATIONS DIVISION
LORAIN COUNTY, OHIO

1. SCOPE OF RULES

- A. The Domestic Relations Division of the Common Pleas Court for Lorain County, Ohio, adopts the following rules for the management of proceedings and other functions of the court pursuant to Rule 5 of the Rules of Superintendence for the Courts of Ohio. The court may amend these rules from time to time as needed or as required by law.
- B. These rules are intended to supplement and complement the Ohio Rules of Civil Procedure, the Superintendence Rules of the Supreme Court of Ohio, and other controlling statutes.
- C. These rules shall be applied, construed and enforced so as to avoid inconsistency with other rules of court and statutes governing proceedings of this court. In their application, they shall be construed so as to provide fairness and to secure a just, expeditious and inexpensive determination of all proceedings. They shall apply to proceedings pending at the time they take effect.
- D. These rules shall be effective April 1, 2018, and supersede all previous rules promulgated by this court.

2. SECURITY FOR COSTS

A. Costs Deposit

The Clerk of Courts shall not accept any action or proceeding for filing without a deposit as security for costs in the sums set forth in the Clerk's Schedule of Costs. Child Support Enforcement Agency filings and Domestic Violence filings are exceptions to this requirement.

B. In Forma Pauperis

The deposit for costs shall be considered to be met if a party files a Poverty Affidavit to proceed In Forma Pauperis, swearing that the party is without funds or assets to pay the deposit, and there is a certification by the attorney, if any, that no attorney fees have been paid or that the party is a client under the LCBA's Modest Means Lawyer Referral program. After the filing of such an Affidavit, the court may examine the party to determine if there are sufficient facts to support a conclusion that substantial justice requires that the party be relieved from liability for court costs. The court shall consider the guidelines set forth by the Ohio Public Defender's Office in making the determination. Nothing herein shall be construed to prevent the court from assessing costs.

C. Subsequent Deposit

If, during the course of a proceeding, the court determines that a party who has filed an Affidavit of Poverty is or has become able to pay the applicable costs deposit, the Court may order that party to pay the deposit within a reasonable period of time commensurate with the circumstances.

D. Responsibility for Costs

All judgment entries shall contain a provision allocating payment of costs. In the absence of any provision, after application of deposits, the balance of costs shall be paid as follows: by the Plaintiff in an uncontested divorce, legal separation or annulment proceeding; equally between the parties in a contested divorce proceeding or dissolution proceeding; by the Respondent in a domestic violence proceeding; the obligor in any proceeding relating to the enforcement, modification or termination of a support order, and by the moving party in a post-decree proceeding. The court or Clerk of Courts may require an additional deposit during the pendency of an action.

E. Court Deposits Applied

Upon final judgment, the Clerk of Courts is directed to apply the deposit to the costs in the case, regardless of the party against whom costs are assessed. The Clerk shall assess the costs against the proper party, reimbursing the deposit when appropriate.

F. Information regarding the Court Deposit for Costs for the Domestic Relations Division can be found on the following website: www.loraincounty.us/clerk/deposit-for-costs. Information regarding the Fee

Schedules for the Domestic Relations Division can be found on the following website: www.loraincounty.us/clerk/fee-schedules.

C. FACSIMILE FILINGS

1. IN GENERAL

This rule has been instituted solely for the convenience of those filing documents with the Clerk of Courts. Facsimile transmissions must comply with the filing requirements as otherwise stated in this rule and may not exceed twenty pages regardless of the number of documents being sent.

6. DATE AND TIME

Subject to the other provisions of the rule, all documents filed by fax shall be considered filed with the Clerk of Courts as of the date and time that the fax transmission has been received by the Clerk of Courts. For purposes of this provision and for entering such filings into the docket system, a facsimile filing shall be deemed to have been received by the Clerk of Courts as of the date and time printed at the top of each page of the incoming fax as printed out by the Clerk of Courts' facsimile equipment. There shall be no other date and time stamp required for the filing of a fax document with the Clerk of Courts, although the Clerk may stamp the document with a stamp confirming the date and time imprinted at the top of the incoming fax page. 17. CONTINUANCES

A. Procedure

1. All requests for continuance of any proceedings shall be by written motion.
2. Requests for continuance of any trial before the Judge shall be filed no later than thirty (30) days prior to trial. All other requests for continuance shall be filed no later than seven (7) days prior to the proceeding. This requirement may be waived by the Court for good cause shown.
3. The moving party shall first attempt to secure consent of the opposing party, set forth in the motion whether consent was obtained or denied, and shall state the number of prior continuances and who requested those continuances. The motion shall state the reason for the continuance and be signed by the party and counsel. The Court may waive this requirement for good cause shown, provided that the motion states the reason why the attorney has been unable to obtain the signature.

4. A copy of the motion shall be served upon the opposing counsel or opposing party if not represented. A copy of the motion shall also be presented to the Judge or Magistrate before whom the hearing is scheduled for a ruling.
5. If the request for continuance is approved, the party granted the continuance shall contact opposing counsel and the Assignment Commissioner to schedule a new date for the hearing.
6. The party granted the continuance shall submit an entry setting forth the new date, which shall be submitted in person or by facsimile transmission by the close of business on the day the continuance is granted.
7. Failure to comply with these rules shall result in the continuance being denied and the matter proceeding as originally scheduled.

B. Conflict of Trial Assignment Dates

When a continuance is requested for the reason that counsel is scheduled to appear in another case assigned for trial on the same date, in the same court or a different court, the case that was first set for trial shall have priority and shall be tried on the date assigned. Criminal cases assigned for trial have priority over civil cases assigned for trial. The Court will not consider any motion for continuance due to a conflict of trial assignment dates unless a copy of the conflicting assignment is attached to the motion and the motion is filed not less than thirty days prior to trial.

C. Engaged Counsel

If a designated trial counsel has such a number of cases assigned for trial in the courts as to cause undue delay in the disposition of such cases, the Administrative Judge may summon such trial attorney, who persistently requests continuances and extensions, to warn the attorney of the possibility of sanctions and to encourage the attorney to make necessary adjustments in the management of his or her practice. Where such measures fail, restrictions may properly be imposed by the Administrative Judge on the number of cases in which the attorney may participate in at any one time.

29. GUIDELINES FOR PARENTING TIME

These guidelines are designed to provide assistance to parents in the resolution of issues relating to parenting time and to provide assistance to the Court in formulating parenting time orders when the parents are unable to reach an agreement. The underlying purpose of any such agreement or order is to provide for the best interest of each child after giving full consideration to the facts and issues that are relevant to each family.

These guidelines are based on the premise that:

- A. Both parents are suitable;
- B. Both parents desire to have an ongoing relationship with each child;
- C. Both parents are able to carry out the childcare plan;
- D. Any negotiated solution between parents is preferred to a court imposed solution;
- E. It is usually in the children's best interest for each parent to have frequent, meaningful and continuing access to the children;

F. That children need reliability, predictability and consistency on the part of each parent.

A number of common sense guidelines should be followed in every case. Except as otherwise ordered by the court:

- A. Both parents are entitled to access to records and information on the medical care of the children directly from the health care provider as well as from the other parent. Each parent should notify the other promptly of any significant medical treatment;
- B. Both parents are entitled to access to all school records of the children directly from the school as well as from the other parent. School reports should be photocopied promptly after receipt and supplied to the other parent. Both parents should be notified promptly of all child-related activities which encourage or allow parental participation;
- C. Both parents are reminded that parenting time and child support, while they may be emotionally connected, are separate legal issues. Parental access may not be denied due to failure to pay child support and child support may not be withheld due to failure of a parent to allow access to the children;
- D. Parents should share with each other their residence and work addresses and phone numbers;
- E. Each parent should encourage the children to initiate telephone, email, and/or mail contact with the other parent on a regular basis, and allow the other parent reasonable contact with the children while in their care;
- F. Parents should not discuss their problems with the other parent with the children, nor should they speak ill of the other parent in the presence of the children;
- G. Parents should not attempt to buy the favor of the children with presents, special treatment or privileges, or promises;
- H. Parents should not make their children choose between the two parents;
- I. Parents should not question their children regarding the activities of the other parent;
- J. Parents should be prompt with appointments with their children. Children should not be kept waiting, nor should they suffer the disappointment of a parent failing to show up. When unforeseen circumstances prevent arrival within approximately 30 minutes of the scheduled time of exchange, immediate notification should be given, if possible, and appropriate alternative arrangements should be made;

- K. Parents should coordinate plans regarding bedtime, discipline, homework schedule and other household rules;
- L. Any clothing accompanying the child should be returned in the same condition as it was sent;
- M. The parent exercising parenting time is responsible for transporting their children to and from the other parent's residence. If the parent is unavailable for the pick-up or return of their children, an alternate driver may be used, provided that driver has a valid driver's license and is known to the children. Any person transporting children must adhere to all child restraint laws. Both parents are expected to have their own child restraint devices. No person transporting children may be under the influence of drugs or alcohol;
- N. When either parent's plans include travel out of the area, a travel schedule including destination and emergency phone numbers (if available) should be forwarded to the other parent prior to departure, with one week notification being preferred.

30. SUGGESTED PARENTING TIME PLAN

- A. Alternating weekends from Friday at 6:00 p.m. to Sunday at 6:00 p.m., commencing the first weekend after the date of filing the journal entry.
- B. One midweek day from 5:00 p.m. to 8:00 p.m. If the parties cannot agree upon a day for the midweek parenting time it shall be Wednesday.

Holiday parenting time shall supersede regularly scheduled parenting time and is from 9:00 a.m. to 8:00 p.m., unless otherwise noted above.

- D. The alternating weekend parenting time sequence shall not be interrupted as a consequence of the holiday schedule. If the weekend immediately preceding a Monday holiday and the holiday parenting time are both scheduled with the same parent, holiday parenting time shall commence Friday at 6:00 p.m. and end Monday at 8:00 p.m. Should the parent having the Thanksgiving holiday also have the weekend immediately following the holiday, holiday parenting time shall commence Thursday at 9:00 a.m. and end Sunday at 6:00 p.m.

Spring vacation parenting time will supersede any regular weekend visitation.

- H. Four (4) weeks of parenting time each summer. Notice shall be given to the other parent of the dates of intended parenting time thirty (30) days in advance of such parenting time. The parent exercising extended summer parenting time has priority in scheduling over the other parent's choice provided the thirty (30) days notice is given, unless the other parent's vacation choice is an annual mandatory shutdown of their place of employment. If either parent chooses to exercise extended summer parenting time for three or more consecutive weeks, the other parent is entitled to exercise their alternating weekend parenting time schedule during that time period, unless the extended summer parenting time involves travel out of the local area.
1. Children are to be in the residential home for school purposes one week before commencement of the school year. No extended summer parenting time is to be scheduled by either parent for the week prior to commencement of school.
 2. Children not of school age may go for extended parenting time throughout the year, provided the parents comply with the thirty (30) day notice requirement.
- I. Children shall celebrate their birthday in the home of the residential parent for school purposes, unless it falls on a day when the other parent is exercising parenting time. The other parent may make up for the birthday with a separate birthday party if desired.
- J. Such additional times as may be agreed between the parties.
- K. Absent reasonable notice and good cause for delay, children and/or the other parent have no duty to wait for the other parent for more than thirty (30) minutes of a scheduled parenting time.
